Monday, July 30. 1722.

THE following humble Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Spencer Compton, Eſq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Suſſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Suſſex, aſſembled at the Aſſizes holden at Lewis in and for the ſaid County the 20th Day of July 1722, beg Leave in the moſt humble Manner to take this Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty upon the happy Diſcovery of the late wicked and treaſonable Practices, encouraged and carried on in theſe Kingdoms againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government; and of expreſſing our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of them. We cannot reflect upon theſe repeated Attempts to diſturb the Peace and Quiet of your Majeſty's Government, without a juſt Indignation at the Baſeneſs and Ingratitude of the Authors of them; who having no Regard to the ſtrongeſt Obligations of Duty, or Senſe of the many Bleſſings they enjoy under the Influence of your Majeſty's mild and gentle Adminiſtration, can ſtill ſuffer themſelves to engage in Deſigns deſtructive of all that is dear and valuable to us. As it is with great Pleaſure we are aſſured, that theſe traiterous Practices are no ways countenanced by any Foreign Powers, ſo we are aſtoniſhed at the ſtrong Deluſion and Infatuation which has poſſeſſed the Minds of your Majeſty's Enemies at Home, in Conjunction with Traytors Abroad, to attempt the Subverſion of our happy Conſtitution; when at the ſame time that they ſhew their Inveteracy to the true Intereſt of their Country, they expoſe the Weakneſs of their own Cauſe; though the many Acts of Clemency ſhew'd by your Majeſty ſince the late unnatural Rebellion, have not been able to reclaim thoſe who received the immediate Advantages of them; yet in your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, they have fixed an unalterable Zeal and Affection to your Perſon and Government, and raiſed a juſt Indignation againſt all ſuch ungratefull as well as wicked Proceedings. We cannot but expreſs our Gratitude to your Majeſty for the Diſcovery of theſe Attempts againſt our Religion and Liberties, and beg Leave to aſſure you, that we have that Confidence in your Majeſty, and thoſe you are pleaſed to intruſt with your Adminiſtration, that we doubt not, but by the Aſſiſtance of God, effectual Care will be taken entirely to defeat all ſuch wicked and traiterous Deſigns. That your Majeſty may have a long and happy Reign over us, and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Family to inherit to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, as the only Defence of our excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State is, and ever ſhall be, the hearty Prayer of your moſt dutiful Subjects.

Jamaica, May 18. 'Captain Candler, in His 'Majeſty's Ship Lanceſton, being ſent out by Com'modore Harris to cruize off of the South-Weſt 'End of Hiſpaniola for Protection of our Trade 'againſt the Pirates, met with a notorious Spaniſh 'Pirate commanded by an Italian, one Mathew 'Luke, the Crew conſiſted of 58, chiefly Mulat'toes and Spaniards of Porto Rico. Laſt Week 'they were all brought to a Trial; the Comman'der pretended he had a Commiſſion from the 'Alcaldee of Porto-Rico to be a Garde-Cote, but 'it having been plainly proved that he had taken 'two Engliſh Veſſels who were going on their 'lawful Occaſions, and no ways near to or within 'the ſight of any part of Hiſpaniola, the Judges 'found them all guilty of Piracy, except Seven, 'Two we were obliged to make Evidences of, 'and it appearing on the Trial that Eight more 'were young raw Lads, and had never been at 'Sea before, the Judges recommended them as Ob'jects of His Majeſty's Mercy; ſo that out of 'the 58 there were 41 hanged. The 17 who were 'ſaved, are to be diſtributed among the Merchant-'Ships, in order to be ſent to Europe as Oppor'tunity offers. It is ſaid, that the Commander of 'this Pirate, when he was to die, confeſs'd the 'taking two other Veſſels beſides thoſe he was 'accuſed of; and that one of the Crew confeſs'd 'his murdering upwards of 20 Engliſhmen with 'his own Hands.

London, July 30.

On Saturday arrived a Mail from Holland, and Yeſterday one from France.

Madrid, July 14. It is reported, that Cardinal Alberoni has not only renounced his Pretenſions to the Archbiſhoprick of Seville, but that he has alſo reſigned the Biſhoprick of Malaga; and that his Catholick Majeſty has nominated ſome other Prelate to that Biſhoprick.

Vienna, July 22. Yeſterday a Courier arrived here from Malta, and 'tis ſaid brings Advice, that the Turks have landed 7000 Men in that Iſland. Different Reports are ſpread relating to the Czar's Expedition in Perſia; ſome ſay that his Fleet has obtained a compleat Victory over the Rebels near Derbent; but others give out, that the Perſians have routed the Czar's Fleet, and taken 20 of his Ships: 'Tis likewiſe reported, that the Perſians, in Conjunction with the Chineſe, and other neighbouring People, are drawn together in a Body to the Number of 500,000 Men, under the Command of Prince Candahor, to oppoſe the Turks and Muſcovites, but the Perſian News by Way of Conſtantinople is ſo variable, there's no being poſitive in any Particular. The Counts de Staremberg and Kinski, and M. Maganetta, Concellour of the Court, are much employed at Presbourg, where 'tis ſaid the Conferences are carried on with Warmth between the Imperial Commiſſaries and the Hungarian States: It is believed that the Emperour deſigns to return thither ſo ſoon as the Matters there under under Deliberation are brought to an Iſſue, and ready for the Imperial Ratification. The Electoral Prince of Bavaria is expected here the End of next September, to conſummate his Marriage with the Joſephine Archdutcheſs.

Amſterdam, Aug. 1. Here is no Advice of any more East India Ships being arrived at the Texel, beſides the two lately mentioned that were ſeparated from the reſt of the Fleet.

Paris, Aug. 5. It is confirmed from all Parts that Malta is beſieged by the Turks; but the Iſland having been newly fortified, and ſupplied with Corn by 40 Ships from Sicily, 'tis believed the Infidels will hardly be able to keep Poſſeſſion of it. M. de Grand Maiſon writes the 16th of July from Provence, that the Diſtemper decreaſes at Marſeilles, and that very few fall ſick in the Town. M. le Bret, in his Letter of the 17th of July gives an Account, that on the 15th there were 58 ſick in the Hoſpital of la Charité at Marſeilles, two were ſince brought in from the Territory belonging to the City, and two died, remains ſtill 58. M. Vian Surgeon at Orange writes, that in 12 Days none had fallen ill there, that only one Patient remained ſick in the Infirmary, and four who having recovered were to be removed to a Houſe uſed for ſuch Perſons, where were 10 others. They were going on to perfume all the Houſes and Goods, and the Silk and other Effects found in a Houſe where one had died of the Plague were to be burnt. M. le Bret writes the 17th of July, that Avigoon continued in the ſame Condition, and that there were ſome ſick now and then at Orange.

Dover, July 26. Yeſterday in the Evening the Right Honourable the Lord Whitworth arrived here, and this Morning his Lordſhip imbarked for Calais on Board the Catherine Yacht.

London, July 30.

His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to give Directions, that a ſufficient Number of a Book entituled The Soldier's Monitor, Written by the late Learned and Pious Divine Dr. Joſiah Woodward, ſhould be reprinted and diſtributed among the Officers and Soldiers in the ſeveral Camps.
